Anadarko Teachers Elect Officers

Members of the Association of Professional Anadarko Educators (APAE) voted on May 18 to elect the group's 2009-10 officers. APAE is a local, non-union professional association for certified teachers, support professionals and administrators at Anadarko Public Schools. The organization is a local chapter of Professional Oklahoma Educators, a statewide professional teachers association serving more than 4300 Oklahoma educators.

Jeff & Rachel Ray (left) were elected to serve as co-presidents for the group. Jeff is a middle school math teacher and Rachel teaches fourth grade.

Kyleen Mixon (right) was elected to the office of Vice President. Mixon serves grades 4 –12.

Ruth Oliphant was elected to the office of secretary. Oliphant teaches 4th grade special education.

Lavonda Bost was elected to the office of treasurer. Bost is a school counselor.
